

Week 7 Question July 19-24

Why do butterflies drink the Side-Necked Turtle's tears?

- a) They are thirsty
- b) They lay their eggs in the turtle's eyes after quenching their thirst
- c) They have come up with a creative solution to increase their salt intake
- d) They like the feeling of intoxication from drinking the tears